How It Works:

The ShippingTree platform will help minimize your dependence on the conventional wholesale model allowing you to sell directly to your customers around the globe, in turn making you more money! The reasons why customers don't order as much internationally are rather simple, but addressing these obstacles is anything but simple...well, ShippingTree is going to change that.

1

Send/direct inventory to a ShippingTree distribution center in the U.S. (Canada coming soon)

2

Instantly connect your shopping cart or marketplace to the ShippingTree platform

3

Customers purchase directly from your web store without having to worry about international shipping and duty charges!

Taking the Hassle out of Cross-Border Ecommerce:

The ShippingTree platform includes freight and customs brokerage services. We'll transport and clear your goods through customs at the lowest possible cost, allowing you to sell directly to your customers across North America using our coast-to-coast network of warehouses.

Eliminate customs fees and expensive international shipping costs for your customers by storing goods locally. Leverage the ShippingTree platform to maximize your profits!

Customer Communication Tools:

- Automated confirmation and shipping e-mails
- Custom packaging and labels available to convey your brand's image
- Easy and cost effective returns
- Track the status of all orders during the fulfillment process

Shipping Costs vs. Conversion Rates:

43%

“In a recent survey by PayPal and ComScore, 43% of shoppers abandon their carts because of surprisingly high international shipping and duty charges.”

Platform Benefits:

- Provide a better shopping experience for your customers
- Easy integration with all major shopping carts and marketplaces
